

Oakleigh HOA Policy re. Co-Sponsorship of Oakleigh Activities and/or Events

Businesses, associations, organizations, and/or other groups or individuals, may co-sponsor Oakleigh activities or events under the following conditions:

1. Co-sponsorship of any Oakleigh activity or event will require the prior approval of the Oakleigh Board of Directors.
2. Any individual, organization, business or group which co-sponsors an Oakleigh activity or event will be expected to make a material contribution to that activity or event, either on a financial or time and materials basis.
3. Any and all notices, advertisements or other publicity regarding the activity or event, whether published by the Oakleigh HOA or by the co-sponsor, will give predominant recognition to the Oakleigh HOA as the primary sponsor. The co-sponsor will also receive prominent recognition, but it must be secondary to that of the Oakleigh HOA.
4. As it is not the function of the Oakleigh HOA to provide free publicity for any co-sponsor, or to endorse any products or services provided by any such co-sponsor, all publicity, notices or advertisements regarding the activity or event, whether published by the Oakleigh HOA or by the co-sponsor, will clearly state that such co-sponsorship does not constitute an endorsement of the co-sponsor, or of any of its products or services, by the Oakleigh HOA.
5. The use of any photographs of Oakleigh homeowners or their property in any such publicity, notice or advertisement will necessitate the written consent of the homeowner.
6. The use of any photographs or other images of the Oakleigh subdivision or its common property in any such publicity, notice or advertisement will necessitate the written consent of the Oakleigh HOA Board of Directors.
7. No individual or group, organization or other entity which sponsors a private party, activity or event on or within Oakleigh's Common Areas and/or Facilities may advertise that party, activity or event in such a manner as to indicate, imply or suggest that such party, activity or event is being sponsored or endorsed, either officially or unofficially, by the Oakleigh Homeowners Association.
